

CV

Clara Cornaro

PROFILE

Dance and movement have always played an important role in my life. After I had attained a socio-cultural understanding of health and illness through my studies in medical anthropology, I decided to combine this with a study of dance movement therapy, which allows me to pursue my desire for therapeutic practice, as well as academic research.

Bergheimer Straße 112
69115, Heidelberg
claracornaro@gmail.com
+4915773761460

WORK EXPERIENCE

Ongoing Internship

Psychiatry, University Hospital Heidelberg
Oct. 2020 - ongoing

Therapeutic Internship

Psychosomatic, AMEOS Hospital Inntal
Aug. - Sept. 2020

Research Assistant

Heidelberg Centre for the Environment
Feb. 2020 - July 2020

Research Assistant

Global Health Institute Heidelberg
Oct. 2019 - July 2020

Nursing Internship

Paediatric surgery, University Hospital Heidelberg
Mai 2019

Nursing Internship

Orthopaedics, University Hospital Heidelberg
Jan. - March 2019

Mini Job

Clinic for Integrative Diagnostics: Greten & Kollegen
(TCM). Heidelberg

EDUCATION

M.A Dance Moment Therapy, SRH

Heidelberg
Oct 2019 - (foreseeing) Sept. 2021
Completed courses: Techniques in DMT, clinical psychology, psychopathology, Neurology amongst others.

M.A. Health and Society in South Asia,

Heidelberg
(1,5) - 2019
My final thesis researched the health consequences of electronic waste recycling. With research conducted in Delhi, India.

B.A. Anthropology and International

Development, Brighton, UK
(1st Class Honours) - 2016

Exchange Semester, University of British Columbia, Canada - 2015